3. Memorized at least two introductory questions.

4. Able to ask introductory questions with ease and confidence as a transition to sharing the Four Spiritual Laws.

Special Instructions:

Simulated Situation 1: Using the Four Spiritual Laws alone (i.e. no survey)

Assume that your mentor or partner is sitting outside the Student Union. Choose any topic of conversation as a start and then lead into the Four Spiritual Laws.

Simulated Situation 2: Using Questionnaires, Surveys, or Evangelistic Articles

You have just gone through a Spiritual Interest Questionnaire with an interested student. Transition to an introduction of the Four Spiritual Laws and ask them if they would be interested in going through it with you.

Simulated Situation 3: Using Introductory Questions After a Meeting

Assume that your mentor or partner is a newcomer at an evangelistic meeting that has just ended. Begin a conversation with him/her by using introductory questions that lead into the Four Spiritual Laws.
